To maximize profit from policy sales, auto insurance companies seek sales volume: your individualized needs for an adequate financial safety net in the event of injury is not something they even consider. Often, the sales agent will say:

"You are fully covered".

While literally true, this "full coverage" promise DOES NOT EQUAL ADEQUATE COVERAGE. In an economic system of rising medical costs and diminishing health insurance benefits, the promise of "full coverage" is misleading in the extreme. You need full coverage as well as adequate amounts of coverage in each category of insurance.

CAR CRASHES: The Most Important Fact You Need to Know

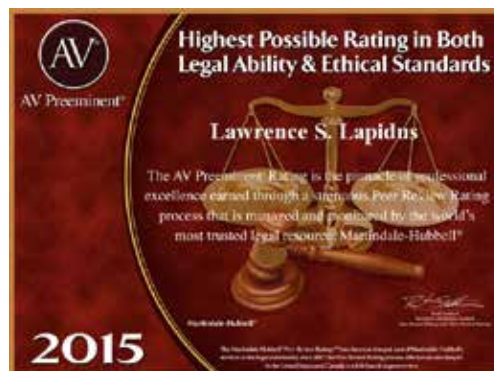

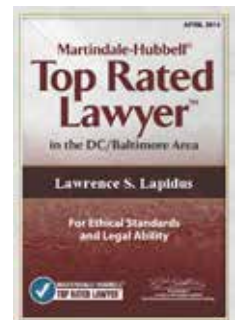

Police Departments in our region have changed their policy regarding when accident reports will be written. If any person involved in an accident is transported by ambulance, there will be a police report; if no person involved leaves the scene by ambulance, the police will not write a report unless a citation is issued.

If you do not take an ambulance from the accident scene, snap cell phone pictures of the license plate number of all vehicles involved, damage to these vehicles and where the vehicles were positioned at the time of the accident. Obtain contact information of all witnesses, including the at-fault driver any passengers in that vehicle, including addresses.

If you, your family or friends are involved in a car/bus crash or when struck as a pedestrian by a car,
